RUNNING RISKS IN SHOES.

It is easy to guard against doing anything of the kind—is risks weren't made to wear. A shoe that you like—is worth all you pay for it every time; the shoe that you don't is a good thing to get rid of rapidly. You won't be anxious to get rid of our GENTS' $2 SHOE. A cheaper shoe you'll never wear.

There will be a Standover society at the A. M. E. church to-night. The lady wearing the largest standover will receive a prize and the gentleman guessing the nearest number of shot in a bottle will also receive a prize.

ALVIN VOOR, the German editor, will represent Decatur at the Monticello bicycle races. He is entered for the prize. It is to be hoped that he will get to the front in every contest, as it would never do to have any dub towns down the Decatur man.

HAVE we any truly great men at the present day? Some doubt it, and ask to be shown the modern Washington, Franklin, or Webster. However this may be, of one thing we are sure, there never was a greater blood-purifier than Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

There seems to be an erroneous impression here that persons going to Decatur, via the T. H. & P. R. R., with the Knights Templar August 8th, cannot get sleepers until they get to Peoria. Beamanor Commandery has arranged for a through sleeper and a chair car from Decatur, leaving here at 11:30 August 6th, arriving at Peoria at 5 p. m. August 7th.

The police last night raided the two houses of ill-repute of the city and captured eleven women, who put up cash bonds which were forfeited to-day. Captain Bailey and Officers Kelly, Imboden and Williamson made the pull. There were no men in either house.

The train carrying Beamanor Commandery to Denver will leave Decatur via the T. H. & P. R. R. at 11:30 a. m. August 6th. This train will have a through sleeper and chair car from Decatur to Denver without change. Parties taking the train at Decatur will have no change of cars between this city and Denver. At Peoria this train will join the special train carrying Grand Eminent Commander T. O. Spring and party. This train will also have a dining car and an observation car from Peoria.

IN CUSTODY FOR ROBBERY.

Frank Corn Loses a Lot of Money While on a Spree—Two Arrests.

Frank Corn, whose mother died and left him about $1,000, had a streak of ill luck Tuesday night while he was intoxicated. He visited bad houses, and then brought up at John Caldwell's shanty, close to a sandwich not far distant. Caldwell, John Tyler and two or three women were there. Corn brought over a keg of beer, and paid for it from his roll of about $275. Then after he had taken more beer he fell asleep in the shanty, and when he awoke he discovered that about half of his money had been stolen, and that Caldwell and Tyler had left the shanty. Corn was sober and he came to the city to report his loss to Marshal W. W. Mason, who took the case in hand, and late in the evening Caldwell and Tyler were behind the bars in the county jail, having been arrested by Officers Williamson and Imboden on South Main street. The two men were drunk and they had about $50 in their possession, $30 of the sum being found on Tyler. During the day the two negroes had spent money freely, and had hired a surrey with a driver to take in the town. They also paid about $20 for clothing bought at Cheap Charlie's store, and had paid a number of personal debts. It is plain to the officers that the accused got away with Corn's money, but it is said that "the girls" gave it to them. Possibly other arrests will follow. Caldwell has served a term in the penitentiary, and Tyler has been a porter at the Hotel Brunswick.

DEATH OF ELDER M. D. HAWES.

After a Brief Illness.

SKETCH OF HIS ACTIVE LIFE.

A Lawyer, a Veteran and a Preacher — A Minister Well Known in the Illinois Conference — Presiding Elder at the Time of Death — Time of Funeral — Burial at Danville.

Rev. M. D. Hawes, presiding Elder of the Decatur district, Illinois conference M. E. Church, died at his residence, No.
1120 North Edward street, this morning at 5 o'clock. He was taken sick a week ago to-day with a local trouble which did not yield to the treatment administered to him and on Sunday the attack was complicated by the appearance of a brain affection and he suffered an alarming sinking spell from which he never rallied, however, in a few hours. From that time until his death the chances were against recovery. Some of the relatives had been sent for and his two sisters, Mrs. W. H. Newlin and Mrs.
Charles Regan, of Springfield, and A.
S. W. Hawes, a brother, of Danville, arrived Monday. The two sisters were present when he died, but the brother, yesterday morning, desiring it safe to return to Danville, had gone home and was not present when he died, but returned early this morning. The wife and two children, Lottie and Paul, were also at the bedside when the spirit of "Mark" Hawes, by which name he was famously known, took its flight.

M. D. Hawes was born May 1, 1838, near Homer, Champaign county, Ill., and was the eldest of a family of twelve children, seven of whom are still living. A.
S. W. Hawes, of Danville, Ill., Dr. M. H.
Hawes and V. L. Hawes, of Georgetown, Vermilion county, Ill., Mrs. W. H. Newlin and Mrs. Charles Regan, of Springfield, Ill., and Mrs. John Porter, of Terra Haute, Ind. The father of this family is still living at Georgetown, having reached the ripe age of 82 years. He is, however, too infirm to attend the funeral services.
Soon after the birth of M. D. Hawes, his father took his family to Georgetown, near Danville, where he was raised, and from whence one by one, the children left the roof tree either through death or to enter the battle of life for themselves.

It was at a revival under the pastorate of the Rev. Samson Shinn that M. D.
Hawes at the age of 16 years was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal church. He grew to manhood in the faith, never for a moment wavering under trial, however sore they were. When the war broke out he took a strong stand for the preservation of the union and Aug.
21, 1862, enlisted in what was known as the "Preachers' Regiment," the Seventy-third Illinois Infantry, of which Rev. James F. Jaques, of Quincy, was the colonel, and among the officers there were many other preachers, many of them well known to the people of Decatur.
Among them were Peter Wallace and R. N. Davis. M. D. Hawes was mustered in as First Lieutenant of Company "C" of this regiment on the same day of his enlistment.

He had chosen the law as his profession and had studied with Judge E. S.
Terry in Danville, and after admission to the bar formed a partnership with D. D.
Evans. He practiced law in Danville for ten years.

While Rev. James Lenton was pastor in Danville, 1870-1, he was strongly moved by his conscience to such a course M. D.
Hawes entered the active ministry. Notwithstanding the fact that he was pleased with his business as a lawyer, and was making money, he left that profession and became an itinerant minister of the M. E. church as a matter of Christian duty. This act standing alone would be sufficient to show the real character of the man.

His first appointment was at Mahomet, Champaign county. The charge was a large circuit and T. I. Conner, who was at the time entering into the ministry, was his associate in that charge as junior preacher. Mr. Hawes remained in Mahomet for one year. Following this he was stationed at Tuscola three years, Springfield two years, Lincoln one year, Carlinville two years, Bloomington three years, Jacksonville three years, Carrollton two years and Mattoon one year. In 1888 he was appointed by Bishop Newman to the Presiding Elderhood and was placed in charge of the Decatur district and has since that time he has resided in Decatur directing his work from this point. He was the first presiding elder appointed in the Illinois conference after the extension of the eldership term from four to six years and consequently at the time of his death had two years to serve.
Mr. Hawes was successful in his ministerial work. At Mahomet at one meeting one hundred souls were converted.
As a preacher, however, he was not an evangelist, but a good sympathetic and efficient pastor and a strong logical pulpit orator. The logic he had learned as the law he carried into the pulpit and it characterized him as a preacher. His brother ministers accorded to him a thorough knowledge of church law and as a result he was connected with some of the greatest church trials in the conference.
He was the legal fountain to which many of the ministers looked for the solution of troublesome legal questions which arose in their several churches.

He loved the work of the ministry and served for a moment regretted that he could not have been a minister. He was devoted Christian and a conscientious and in his death the Illinois conference lost one of its strong men and solid pillars.

M. D. Hawes was united in marriage with Anna M. Thompson of Georgetown, Ill., April 13, 1865, and to them were born three children; one of these died in infancy. The other two, Miss Lottie, aged fifteen years, and Paul T. aged fourteen years, with the wife and mother, survive to mourn the loss of a true and devoted husband and father.
Through all the years of his active life his wife was ever near to aid him in every possible way. She was always in sunshine and storm, his confidential advisor and helpmeet. To her he said: "When I am dead just lay me out upon my monument: 'A sinner saved by grace,'" and to her, after he was taken sick, and when he seemed to have a promise of his coming death, he said: "I have no great ecstasy, but rivers of peace, rivers of peace."

The family have a burial lot in the cemetery at Danville where his remains will be interred to-morrow.

ORDER OF SERVICE.
Funeral services will be held at Geo.
M. E. church to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock. The order of services will be as follows:
Hymn—"There is a Fountain Filled with Blood."
Prayer—Rev. James Miller, Decatur.
Scriptures—Rev. A. G. Armstrong, Assumption.
Sketch—Rev. M. Auer, Macon.
Hymn—"I Love My Kingdom, Lord."
Address—Dr. H. H. Owsen, Decatur.
Song—"Take the World, but Give Me Jesus." Invocation—Rev. T. D. Weaver, Illinois.
Rev. W. S. Hooper, for years secretary of the Illinois conference, who was in Decatur to-day, said: "Rev. Hawes was a man of clear, manly conviction and decided opinion. When once an impression of duty was made he performed duty without regard to consequences. As a preacher he was clear and logical, having much of the lawyer in his discussion of questions, and possessed much spirituality. As a man he was true, noble and generous, doing to others as he would have them do to him. He was a friend in the highest sense of the word. In the afflictions of his brothers he was always ready with words of sympathy, among the first to approach the bedside or send the letter of condolence. As a presiding elder he was true to his duty, having lost but one Sabbath a year during his administration in that office. In his appointment of men to their respective fields he always looked well to the interests of the church and the man, but pledged nothing until he knew he could fulfill the pledge. During the early part of his sickness he said, 'I have given the most of my life to the Lord, but I do not think he will call me from labor to reward yet.' He was calm and clear in his religious experience; not given to ecstasy, but calm and powerful."

The death of Elder Hawes leaves the Decatur district without a presiding elder. It is a position which requires constant attention, and it becomes the duty of Bishop Foster to select a minister in the Illinois conference to serve as presiding elder for the district until the conference meets in September.
Under the church law the Bishop may appoint any minister as elder from any district within the boundary of the conference. Elder Hawes' successor will be elected to serve the unexpired time, which under the decision of the General Conference, in two years.

An Important Decision by Judge Vail in Chicago.

During the past month Judge Vail has been kept in Chicago hearing evidence in an important litigation. The 77th day to-day gives the summing up of the case
as follows:

Judge Vail yesterday gave his decision in the case of Rose vs. White, involving an estate estimated to be worth $2,000,000.
About fifteen years ago Alexander White died, leaving no will. The property was distributed among the various heirs. In 1883 the estate became involved, owing to the speculations of Alexander White's son, for the purpose of convenience the heirs decided their respective shares of the estate to their mother, Ann White. Subsequently Ann White died, and her estate was married Alexander Rose of New York.
This marriage was contrary to the wish of the mother and the rest of the heirs and at the mother's death it was found that Ann White had been entirely ignored in the will. Ann White also died and her property to Alexander Rose, her husband. The will was probated in New York and a proceeding was brought in the circuit court of this county to have the deed of Ann White to her mother set aside.

Judge Vail held that there was no consideration given for the deed from Ann White to her mother, and that it was given solely for the purpose of convenience. He, therefore, ordered an accounting to be taken and the cause was referred to Master in Chancery Butler for that purpose.

The cause has been on hearing for a month and been watched with great interest by the legal fraternity.

This executive council of the Bankers Association of Illinois, of which James Millikin, of Decatur, is a member, met at the state capital yesterday. The annual meeting of the association will be held at Springfield November 15 and 16. Chairman F. W. Tracy was authorized to arrange for the meeting. The association will also appoint two delegates from Illinois to the convention of the National Bankers' association at San Francisco September 7 and 8. The association adjourns to meet some time in October.

AT REST.

Funeral of Daniel Whitel, Jr., Largely Attended by Friends.

Last evening at 5 o'clock the funeral of the late Daniel Whitel, Jr., was held at the home of the parents, Mr. and Mrs.
Daniel Whitel, 608 East Orchard street, in the presence of a very large assemblage of sympathizing friends. The house and lawn were crowded. Scores were unable to enter the rooms. Upon and about the richasket were placed a great profusion of beautiful floral offerings, a number of which were of massive design.
The impressive services were conducted by Rev. James Miller, pastor of the First Methodist church, whose remarks were beautiful, consoling and deeply sympathetic. Appropriate music for the occasion was furnished by Misses Addie Ebert and Lucy Keeler, D. L. Burn and C. N. Brown. The pallbearers were Newt Davis, Cliff Elwood, I. N. Martin, Jr., Cal Waggoner, F. Lethrop, and Oles Waggoner. The interment was in Greenwood as the sun was sinking to rest.
The cortege was one of the largest witnessed in the city on a funeral occasion.
There were nearly fifty vehicles in the procession.

CAUGHT ONE GIRL.

Now the Police Want Jessie Blacksoe in the Robbery Case.

This forenoon Officer Leech arrested Rose Eaton, a negro girl, who is charged with having been a party to the robbery of Frank Corn, whose experience is related in another column. Rose is in the county jail, where John Caldwell and John Tyler are languishing, waiting for a preliminary examination. "These are other girls in the case. She is Jessie Blacksoe, who left for Springfield last night on the 9 o'clock train. The temperature here was too warm for her. The police will get her.

John Tyler, who is said to be an honest and industrious negro, claims to be entirely innocent. He says the money he had was given him by the girls, who said that Corn, while drunk, gave it to them.
It is probably true that Corn became generous while at the Oldwell shanty.

No doubt all of the parties named will be held to answer the action of the grand jury.

WAPELLA'S WHITE CAPS.

Parties Held to Appear Before the Circuit Court on That Charge.

Wapella is in a ferment over the alleged white cap riot of Friday night last.
It seems Mrs. Sarah Hurley, a poor widow of that town, has been accused of some irregularities, and by some of her neighbors was ordered to leave town.
Several men disguised in blackened faces, gowns and dresses, entered, breaking in the doors and windows and shooting in all directions, terrorizing her little child and shooting her 15-year-old son in the left hand. The claims she recognized Matt Baker, Joe Golden and Wm. Gash, and after a long trial before Justice Mc-Henry, at Clinton yesterday these men were each bound over in the sum of $200 to appear at the circuit court.

A Drum Corps.

There has been some strong talk of organizing a drum corps for the coming campaign. A great many members of the Republican Drum Corps in 1898 are quite anxious to reorganize. All those who desire to become members of the corps will call at the Republican office and sign the list. A. S. Robinson, a member of the Republican drum corps of 1898, and George Bell of 1898, have consented to drill the boys and get them in shape.

A Costly Fire.

Fire was discovered early yesterday morning in the blacking tubes of the planers works of Selby, Starr & Co., at Peoria. It spread rapidly to the paint shop, and in two minutes the flames were beyond control. The entire plant was destroyed with the exception of the warehouses. The loss is $85,000, insurance $61,000. A hundred and fifty men were thrown out of work.

Mounted Campaign Club.

A movement has been started in the Fifth ward to organize a large Republican campaign club of Mounted Workmen. They have about decided to adopt a slouch hat, black coat, blue pants with white stripes, and a dinner pail, for the uniform. The club proposes to take in all the workmen in the district, and that in all home and county parades horses will be used.

North streets, aged 4 months. The funeral is in progress this afternoon from Here's What the Plasterers Think of ROCK PLASTER.

WE THE UNDERSIGNED, contracting plasterers, after much experience and observation, take pleasure in testifying to the practical character of ROCK PLASTER, and while it will remove a not inconsiderable amount of business, namely, that of patching, we advocate its use, as it enables us to do work and guarantee the results, and enables us to carry on our trade at all seasons of the year, and modernizes that part of building enterprise which has undergone practically no improvement in the last two thousand years, placing the business of the plasterer on the same footing as that occupied by the other trades through the advent of machinery and improved methods.
